Huntington University elects its 14th president

During their annual winter meetings, the Huntington University (HU) Board of Trustees voted to elect Dr. Robert Pepper as the 14th president of HU. Pepper currently serves in the role of executive director and assistant to the president for innovation and university partnerships at Messiah University in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Pepper was selected following an extensive national search assisted by executive search firm CarterBaldwin.

Dr. Robert Pepper

Chairman of the Huntington University board, Monte Lightner, stated, “The Huntington University Board of Trustees is pleased to welcome Dr. Rob Pepper as the next president of Huntington University. Dr. Pepper’s scholarship, experience, creativity, and above all, his love of Jesus will continue and enhance the legacy left by past

“I am humbled to join Huntington University as its 14th president,” said Pepper. “As my wife, Kristin, and I learned about the University’s rich history and heard from board members and community members about the vibrant, Christ-centered communities in both Indiana and Arizona, it became clear to us that Huntington is deeply committed to developing the whole person.”

HU presidents. We are excited to participate with Dr. Pepper in the next chapter of Huntington University.”

Pepper graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history from Messiah College in 1992, followed by a Master of Science degree in counseling: college student development from Shippensburg University in 1994, and he earned a PhD in organizational leadership from Regent University in 2009.

“I am humbled to join Huntington University as its 14th president,” said Pepper. “As my wife, Kristin, and I learned about the University’s rich history and heard from board members and community members about the vibrant, Christ-centered communities in both Indiana and Arizona, it became clear to us that Huntington is deeply committed to developing the whole person. The institution’s focus on helping students view all things through a Christian worldview and preparing them to impact the world for Christ is inspiring.”

Pepper has served at Messiah University in roles of increasing responsibility since 1993, beginning as a residence hall director overseeing student life initiatives. His early work in student affairs laid the groundwork for his career in higher education, focusing on mentorship and personal development of students. Pepper’s roles grew to encompass broader responsibilities, such as director of graduate enrollment and student services, where he and his team worked to double enrollment from 247 to 593 students. His success in this role led to his appointment as the interim assistant provost, and later as associate provost/dean of the School of Graduate and Professional Studies. Under his leadership, enrollment swelled to 877 students in 2021-2022.

Messiah University President Dr. Kim

Phipps shared this statement, “Dr. Pepper had a significant impact on programmatic innovation and the development of community partnerships at Messiah. Huntington University will continue to thrive under his Christ-centered visionary leadership.”

Pepper has been married to his wife, Kristin, since 1993. Kristin has served for the past 18 years as a member of the children’s ministry staff at West Shore Free Church. Their shared involvement in church life helped them create a strong foundation rooted in faith, and together they have raised three children with these same values.

Their eldest, Colby, is a graduate of Covenant College in Georgia, where he was a competitive soccer player. He later earned an MBA and graduate degree in sports management from Ohio University and now works in Major League Soccer with Sporting Kansas City. Their middle child, Micah, graduated from Wheaton College (IL), where he studied history and international relations and excelled in speech and debate.

He currently serves with International Justice Mission, a faith-based global nonprofit dedicated to combating human trafficking and modern-day slavery. Their youngest, Aubrey, will graduate in May 2025 from Belhaven University in Mississippi with a Bachelor of Arts degree in dance with minors in entrepreneurship and Biblical studies.

Heartland REMC, Heritage Days sponsor for 2025

“A Heritage of Caring,” is the theme of Huntington’s 61st Heritage Days, Wednesday, June 11 through Sunday, June 15. Heartland REMC will be the corporate sponsor of the festivities surrounding Heritage Days 2025.

Heritage Days 2025 will celebrate the people of Huntington, and the ways the community is united in looking out for each other. When you walk down a Huntington street, you can count on a smile from the people you meet, and over the years many individuals, businesses and organizations have united the community in caring for one another. The events of Heritage Days will celebrate Huntington’s way of caring with the activities that take place in various locations.

Making electric energy available to Heartland Rural Electric REMC’s membership, at the lowest cost possible, is the way Heartland REMC cares for the nine counties the corporation serves. As a not-for-profit electric cooperative, their consumers are members – they are owned by those they serve. Heartland REMC, as a cooperative, is responsible first to its members.

Huntington, Wabash, Wells, part of southwest Allen and fringe areas of Miami, Kosciusko, Whitley, Grant and Adams are the nine counties where Heartland REMC’s presence is known. The cooperative had its beginnings in 1936. The Chamber thanks Heartland REMC for their sponsorship.

Heritage Days are coordinated by a Steering Committee of the Huntington County Chamber of Commerce. For more information contact the Chamber at (260) 356-5300 or email skimmel@huntington-chamber.com.

Chamber extends 'thank you' to its members

The Huntington County Chamber of Commerce sends a big "thank you" to our members. With members like you, we are able to provide a sustainable business community in Huntington County along with helping to foster growth and positive change.

Only through your support can we continue to fund important community initiatives and lead the way for business.

Your Chamber now features many new ways for you to get involved with the Chamber or community activities. We offer networking and volunteering opportunities, many ways to promote your business through our website and Facebook pages, events calendar, help wanted, discounts on purchases, seminars, hot deals, Chamber Bucks, After Hours, access to the Indiana Small Business Development Center (ISBDC) and more, all free with your membership. Maybe you just want to know more about other businesses and Chamber activities or share in ribbon cuttings and open houses. If so, you might inquire about becoming a Chamber Ambassador.

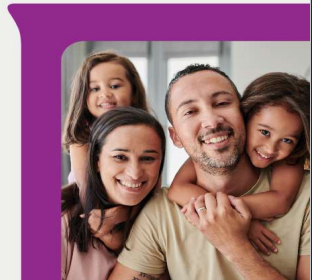

The Chamber also asks that you place your Chamber decal in the front window of the business. Your Chamber decal will tell your customers and potential customers that you are a Chamber member, and that you have made an investment in our community. We want you to thrive as a successful local business providing needed services and jobs to the area. Did you know that 63% of consumers are more likely to purchase goods and services from a business if they know they are a member of the Chamber? That is two out of three customers and that shows true membership value.

Our mission at the Huntington County Chamber of Commerce is simple – to support, promote and improve the quality of life of those in our community. The Chamber works to provide real benefits for you and your employees, and we hope you will continue to join us in making Huntington County a great place to live, work and play. Your Chamber membership is not only an investment in your business, but it's an investment in the community and Huntington County's future.

Meet & Greet

'Meet & Greet to be held in Warren on February 5

The Entrepreneurial Leadership Council, a committee of the Huntington County Chamber of Commerce, will hold its next Entrepreneurial 'Meet & Greet' on Wednesday, February 5, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., at East of Chicago Pizza, 111 E. 1st Street, Warren.

The gathering will feature guest speakers Terry L. Miller, Mike and Tajsha Ralston and Bruce and Zane Herr.

Miller owns and operates the East of Chicago Pizza in Warren. Miller will speak to the group on some of the ups and downs of owning and managing a restaurant. The awards that come with owning your own business and more.

Mike and Tajsha Ralston, Aerial Ag in Warren, will discuss ways in which they operate their business. Ralston is a drone pilot, operator, maintenance supervisor, CEO, customer service representative, troubleshooter and truly so much more at Aerial Ag. Ralston has a private applicator license, but he also holds commercial and aerial applicator licenses. He has eleven years of experience in the precision ag industry. Together the Ralstons manage the business.

Bruce Herr and son, Zane, owners of Dash 90 Wines, will share with those attending how the winery began, and how to start your own business from the "ground up." They will talk about some of the challenges and rewards that come with building and managing your own business along with raising four children. The Herrs will share how Dash 90 Wines started and where they are today.

If you are an entrepreneur, aspiring entrepreneur, own your own business, thinking about starting a business or simply interested in learning more about growing entrepreneurial wealth in Huntington County, this gathering is for you. If you would like to attend this get-together reply to skimmel@huntingtonchamber.com. There is no cost to attend, but you must RSVP as the Chamber needs to know how many will be attending. Food will be provided by East of Chicago Pizza for this event.

Mark Thompson named new Administrator at The Waters

The Waters of Huntington welcomed Mark Thompson as their new Administrator on November 25. Thompson brings a wealth of experience having served as a Health Care Administrator for over 28 years.

Mark Thompson

Beyond his professional life, Thompson cherishes moments with his three children and two new grandchildren. In his free time, he indulges in his love for WWI Trench Art, and ventures all over to different antique stores and flea markets to find this art.

Aside from that, he also enjoys restoring basic furniture. He makes amazing chocolate chip cookies according to his staff. Thompson is passionate about helping residents and the senior community. The Waters of Huntington is thrilled to have him and begin this new journey.

The Waters of Huntington can be reached by calling (260) 356-5713, or by visiting them online at watersofhuntington.com/.

Applications are being accepted for scholarship

Parkview Health Foundation is now accepting applications for the Parkview Huntington Spirit of Service Scholarship. This educational funding opportunity is made possible by the generosity of foundation donors and their desire to support students wishing to begin a career in healthcare or advance their current skill level.

Applications are now available and will be accepted through Sunday, February 23.

Parkview Huntington Spirit of Service Scholarship

The Parkview Huntington Spirit of Service Scholarship provides a $1,500 scholarship (payable directly to the school) to be used exclusively for tuition assistance. Up to three scholarships may be awarded.

Huntington County students pursuing post-secondary education in a healthcare-related field of study at any accredited institution of higher learning or technical training – as well as students residing outside Huntington County who are enrolled at Huntington University – are eligible to apply.

Candidates must:

- * Submit a completed online application.
- * Be enrolled, or plan to enroll, in an accredited post-secondary educational institution to pursue a healthcare-related major/course of study. The recipient must enroll for the academic year for which the scholarship is awarded, or the scholarship award will be revoked.

More about the scholarship

The Parkview Huntington Spirit of Service Scholarship continues a long tradition of support for local residents pursuing post-secondary studies in the healthcare field. This scholarship was initially funded by a portion of a legacy gift from the Parkview Huntington Hospital Guild, which ceased operations in 2018. Scholarships have been awarded annually since 2019. The scholarship is sustained by proceeds from the operation of the Parkview Huntington Hospital gift shop.

The application is available at the Huntington North High School Guidance Office, or it can be accessed via online portal in the Parkview Health Foundation section of parkview.com.

For more information, email scholarships@parkview.com.
