Ribbon cuttings, groundbreakings 2024

As the Chamber closes out another year in Huntington County, we are grateful for the many blessings we had during 2024. The Chamber is hopeful for 2025, and looks forward to the new year ahead. We build those hopes on our strong past, and the continued hard work of Huntington's dedicated leaders toward the future.

In this first newsletter of 2025, we look back at some of the accomplishments of the past year. The Chamber is featuring and sharing with you some of the ribbon cuttings and groundbreakings of businesses here in Huntington County. This information also highlights some of the more important functions the Chamber provides every day and every year to promote and support our member investors and the local business community.

As we begin the New Year, we also want to say "thank you" to all of our wonderful members, and pledge to continue our mission of "supporting and promoting a community atmosphere in which business prospers and the quality of life continually improves."

More accomplishments!

Huntington, Roanoke, Markle and Warren have all welcomed new businesses begun in recent months, and buildings revitalized, repainted, improved and more.

As we move into 2025, the Chamber is hopeful that the momentum continues. People are expressing the desire to visit downtowns for a special experience or that unique gift. Huntington County has begun to see the resurgence of small independently owned businesses start in the county, and the Chamber believes this is a positive beginning to the new year.

Additional celebrations!

The top photo shows several people celebrating the groundbreaking for the new Iwo Jima monument that is now on display at Memorial Park; the celebration of 50 years of EMS services to Huntington County at Parkview Huntington Hospital; and ribbon cuttings at the new First Federal Savings Bank, Fort Wayne, along with the ribbon cutting at Drover Park to commemorate the new accessible playground equipment for children of all abilities to enjoy.

Michelle Crone named executive director at YSB

The Youth Services Bureau of Huntington County (YSB) is excited to introduce their new executive director, Michelle Crone. She assumed her role on Monday, December 16, 2024.

Michelle Crone

Crone began her career with YSB in May 2024 as the assistant executive director. She has 27 years of banking experience and ten years of non-profit experience.

According to the YSB, Michelle's passion to serve others, commitment to the Huntington community and great personality made her the perfect person to lead the Youth Services Bureau of Huntington County.

Ivy Tech offers equipment maintenance classes

Ivy Tech of Fort Wayne has a great opportunity for Huntington County residents or anyone working in Huntington County. The school is offering a way to skill up employees with their Equipment Maintenance classes. Classes will last only nine weeks and best of all, there is funding available.

This is an opportunity for employers and their employees will not want to miss. Funding is available to Huntington residents as well as anyone who works in Huntington County. Go to this link <https://www.ivytech.edu/classes/skills-training-classes/transportation-logistics/supply-chain-automation-equipment-maintenance-sca-em/> to view class information and www.huntingtonccf.org/slm will get you to the application for funding from the Community Foundation of Huntington County.

Classes run from January 13 through March 12, 2025 from 1 to 5 p.m. Class days are Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

To get started students must create an account at www.huntingtonccf.org/slm. A code is then put in a code for the application to come up. The code is: Learner. Please only share that with those who have been accepted into the class. The application is called "Ignite Your Future." Students must either live and/or work in Huntington County to be applicable.

Meet & Greet

'Meet & Greet to be held in Warren on February 5

The Entrepreneurial Leadership Council, a committee of the Huntington County Chamber of Commerce, will hold its next Entrepreneurial 'Meet & Greet' on Wednesday, February 5, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., at East of Chicago Pizza, 111 E. 1st Street, Warren.

The gathering will feature guest speakers Terry L. Miller, Mike and Tajsha Ralston and Bruce and Zane Herr.

Miller owns and operates the East of Chicago Pizza in Warren. Miller will speak to the group on some of the ups and downs of owning and managing a restaurant. The awards that come with owning your own business and more.

Mike and Tajsha Ralston, Aerial Ag in Warren, will discuss ways in which they operate their business. Ralston is a drone pilot, operator, maintenance supervisor, CEO, customer service representative, troubleshooter and truly so much more at Aerial Ag. Ralston has a private applicator license, but he also holds commercial and aerial applicator licenses. He has eleven years of experience in the precision ag industry. Together the Ralstons manage the business.

Bruce Herr and son, Zane, owners of Dash 90 Wines, will share with those attending how the winery began, and how to start your own business from the "ground up." They will talk about some of the challenges and rewards that come with building and managing your own business along with raising four children. The Herrs will share how Dash 90 Wines started and where they are today.

If you are an entrepreneur, aspiring entrepreneur, own your own business, thinking about starting a business or simply interested in learning more about growing entrepreneurial wealth in Huntington County, this gathering is for you. If you would like to attend this get-together reply to skimmel@huntingtonchamber.com. There is no cost to attend, but you must RSVP as the Chamber needs to know how many will be attending. Food will be provided by East of Chicago Pizza for this event.

Foundation receives $4.8 million grant from Lilly

The Community Foundation of Huntington County is honored to have received a grant of $4,806,133 from the Lilly Endowment Inc. through the Community Leadership Implementation Grants component of the eighth phase of its Giving Indiana Funds for Tomorrow (GIFT VIII) initiative. This is one of 30 implementation grants being awarded through GIFT VIII, a statewide Lilly Endowment initiative designed to support the efforts of community foundations and their partners to strengthen quality of life for the people in the towns, cities, counties and regions they serve.

Through this grant, the Community Foundation will collaborate with the City of Huntington, Huntington Main Street and key partners to enhance quality-of-place investments in downtown Huntington. These efforts will align with local input gathered through the City’s Downtown Master Plan process – a critical aspect of achieving a successful grant outcome. Additionally, the grant will leverage further funding opportunities to support downtown revitalization projects in communities throughout Huntington County.

With funding now secured, the Community Foundation and its partners will focus on bringing the vision of the Downtown Master Plan to life. The community can look forward to visible progress, including finalized project designs, enhanced public spaces, new recreational and entertainment opportunities and strengthened support for local businesses. Throughout the process, regular updates will ensure residents stay informed and engaged as these exciting changes take shape.

“This is a team win for Huntington County,” says Matt Ditzler, Community Foundation Executive Director. “The City’s thoughtful planning and the community’s strong engagement were essential to our success. This grant gives us a unique opportunity to reinvest in our downtowns and create vibrant places that strengthen the social fabric of our communities for generations to come.”

In 1990, Lilly Endowment launched the Giving Indiana Funds for Tomorrow (GIFT) initiative to help establish and further develop community foundations throughout Indiana. Lilly Endowment hoped that Indiana’s community foundations could enhance the quality of life in their communities by convening conversations among people of diverse ages, socioeconomic backgrounds, occupations, races and cultural traditions about their communities’ most compelling needs and opportunities as well as the best ways to address them.

Interested in learning more? Stay connected with the Community Foundation on social media or visit www.huntingtonccf.org for the latest updates on grant progress.

Little Sweets Spot in downtown Huntington has added freshly made fudge to purchase from their store. The store started with 12 different flavors to include peanut butter, peanut butter chocolate, chocolate, birthday cake, strawberry swirl, chewy praline, cookies 'n cream, peanut butter crunch, maple walnut, chocolate nut, chocolate M&M and candy bar.

Little Sweets Spot now making homemade fudge

Little Sweets Spot in downtown Huntington is now making homemade fudge. The fudge is made fresh at the store located at 315 N. Jefferson Street, and it is the only candy store to offer freshly made fudge in Huntington. The store is owned by Ashton and Betty Pinkerton.

According to Betty, "We are making our own fudge with our own label attached. We can create our own recipes and produce our own flavors of fudge because what we purchased was not franchised equipment."

"We are focusing on 12 different flavors. The fudge is made fresh daily at the store," said Pinkerton. "Flavors include peanut butter, peanut butter chocolate, chocolate, birthday cake, strawberry swirl, chewy praline, cookies 'n cream, peanut butter crunch, maple walnut, chocolate nut, chocolate M&M and candy bar.

Asked why they decided to invest in making fudge, Betty replied, "Over the time we have owned the store people have asked if we sell fudge. We listen to our customers and if they are wanting fudge, then Ashton and I felt we need to give the customers what they want. Plans are to have a 'Flavor of the Month,' for our customers."

You can contact Little Sweets Spot by calling (260) 200-1015, email littlestweetspot@gmail.com or visit them on Facebook.
